

physical characteristics, such as dimensions, wattage, material composition, or other distinguishing characteristics, that differentiate it from other products that are subject to the safeguard measure. The notice said that the U.S. Trade Representative would not consider requests identifying the product at issue in terms of the identity of the producer, importer, or ultimate consumer, the country of origin, or trademarks or tradenames. The notice also provided that the U.S. Trade Representative would evaluate each request on a case-by-case basis and would grant only those exclusions that did not undermine the objectives of the safeguard measure.

The February 2018 notice indicated that the U.S. Trade Representative would consider exclusion requests filed no later than March 16, 2018. The Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) received 48 product exclusion requests and 213 comments responding to the various requests. The exclusion requests generally fell into seven categories, one of which concerned bifacial solar panels. Proponents asserted that the volume of bifacial solar panel production available for export to the United States was highly limited, that the products would not compete directly with CSPV products produced in the United States, and that the exclusion would not undermine the objectives of the safeguard measure.

On September 19, 2018, and June 13, 2019 (the June 2019 notice), the U.S. Trade Representative granted certain product exclusion requests in notices published in the Federal Register (83 FR 47393 and 84 FR 27684) and modified the HTSUS accordingly. In particular, based on the above assertions, the June 2019 notice specifically excluded from application of the safeguard measure “bifacial solar panels that absorb light and generate electricity on each side of the panel and that consist of only bifacial solar cells that absorb light and generate electricity on each side of the cells.”

B. Further Evaluation of the Bifacial Solar Panel Exclusion

USTR has received multiple inquiries, requests, and other comments from members of the public. Some have asserted that the bifacial solar panels exclusion granted in the June 2019 notice is broader than the category of products described in the exclusion requests submitted as of March 16, 2018. Others have stated that the exclusion will cause a significant increase in imports of bifacial solar panels, with projections that such a surge is imminent.

After evaluating newly available information from these and other sources demonstrating that global production of bifacial solar panels is increasing, that the exclusion will likely result in significant increases in imports of bifacial solar panels, and that such panels likely will compete with domestically produced monofacial and bifacial CSPV products in the U.S. market, the U.S. Trade Representative has determined, after consultation with the Secretaries of Commerce and Energy, that maintaining the exclusion will undermine the objectives of the safeguard measure.

C. Withdrawal of the Bifacial Solar Panel Exclusion

Based on an evaluation of the factors set out in the February 2018 notice, and further consideration of the exclusion granted for bifacial solar panels in the June 2019 notice, the U.S. Trade Representative has determined after consultation with the Secretaries of Commerce and Energy to withdraw that exclusion.

Accordingly, as set out in the Annex to this notice, USTR is modifying subdivision (c)(iii) of U.S. note 18 to subchapter III of chapter 99 of the HTSUS to remove subdivision (c)(iii)(15), which implements the exclusion of bifacial solar panels.

D. Technical Changes to the HTSUS

It has come to the attention of USTR that certain technical clarifications to the Annex will facilitate administration of the safeguard measure. Presidential Proclamation 6969 of January 27, 1997 (62 FR 4415) authorizes the U.S. Trade Representative to exercise the authority provided to the President under section 604 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2483) to embody rectifications, technical or conforming changes, or similar modifications in the HTSUS. Pursuant to this delegated authority, the U.S. Trade Representative modifies the HTSUS to make the technical changes set out in the Annex to this notice.

Annex

Effective with respect to articles entered for consumption, or withdrawn from a warehouse for consumption, on or after 12:01 a.m. eastern daylight time on October 28, 2019, U.S. note 18 to subchapter III of chapter 99 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS) is modified by removing the following from subdivision (c)(iii):

“(15) bifacial solar panels that absorb light and generate electricity on each side of the panel and that consist of only bifacial solar cells that absorb light and generate electricity on each side of the cells;”

U.S. note 18 to subchapter III of chapter 99 of the HTSUS is further modified by redesignating current subdivisions (c)(iii)(16) and (c)(iii)(17) as subdivisions (c)(iii)(15) and (c)(iii)(16), respectively.

U.S. note 18 to subchapter III of chapter 99 of the HTSUS is further modified by striking from subdivision (c)(i) the HTSUS number “8541.40.6030” and by inserting in lieu thereof “8541.40.6025”.

U.S. note 18 to subchapter III of chapter 99 of the HTSUS is further modified by striking from subdivision (g) of such note the HTSUS number “8541.40.6020” and by inserting in lieu thereof “8541.40.6015”.

AGENCY: Office of the United States Trade Representative.

ACTION: Notice of determinations and action.

DATES: The additional duties set out in Annex A are applicable with respect to products that are entered for consumption, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on or after 12:01 a.m. eastern daylight time on October 18, 2019.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Proceedings in the Investigation

On April 12, 2019, the U.S. Trade Representative announced the initiation of an investigation to enforce U.S. rights in the WTO dispute against the EU and certain EU member States addressed to subsidies on large civil aircraft. See 84 FR 15028 (April 12 notice). The April 12 notice contains background information on the investigation and the dispute settlement proceedings, as well as the website where you can find the WTO reports: https://www.wto.org/english/stratop_e/dispu_e/cases_e/ds316_e.htm.

The April 12 notice solicited comments on a proposed determination that, inter alia, the EU and certain member States have denied U.S. rights under the WTO Agreement, and in particular, under Articles 5 and 6.3 of the Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures (SCM Agreement) and the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade 1994 (GATT 1994), and have failed to comply with the WTO Dispute Settlement Body (DSB) recommendations to bring the WTO-inconsistent subsidies into compliance with WTO obligations. The April 12 notice invited public comment on a proposed action in the form of an additional ad valorem duty of up to 100 percent on products of EU member States to be drawn from a list of 317 tariff subheadings and 9 statistical reporting numbers of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS) included in the annex to that notice.

The public comment process following the April 12 notice included an opportunity for the submission of written comments, and the opportunity to participate in a public hearing. The Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR) received over 600 submissions, and held a 2 day public hearing where 47 witnesses provided testimony.

In response to these public comments, and upon further analysis, USTR published a notice inviting public comment on a second list of products also being considered for an additional ad valorem duty of up to 100 percent. See 84 FR 32248 (July 5, 2019) (July 5 notice). USTR received nearly 1,900 submissions in response to the July 5 notice, and held a hearing on August 5, 2019, where 31 witnesses provided testimony.

The public versions of submissions received in response to the April 12 and

July 5 notices, as well as transcripts of both hearings, are available on www.regulations.gov under docket number USTR-2019-0003.

As stated in the April 12 and July 5 notices, any final list of products subject to additional tariffs would take into account the report of the WTO Arbitrator on the appropriate level of countermeasures authorized by the WTO. On October 2, 2019, the WTO Arbitrator issued a report that concluded that the appropriate level of countermeasures in response to the WTO-inconsistent launch-aid provided by the EU or certain member States to their large civil aircraft domestic industry is approximately $7.5 billion annually.

B. Determination of Whether U.S. Rights Under a Trade Agreement Are Being Denied

Based on the original panel and appellate reports, the compliance panel and appellate reports, the report of the WTO Arbitrator, and information obtained during the investigation, including public comments and the advice of the Section 301 Committee, the U.S. Trade Representative has determined, under sections 301(a), 304(a), and 306(b) of the Trade Act of 1974 (Trade Act) (19 U.S.C. 2411(a), 2414(a) and 2416(b)), that the rights of the United States under the GATT 1994 and the SCM Agreement, particularly Articles 5 and 6.3 of the SCM Agreement, are being denied; that subsidies provided by the EU and certain member States violate, or are inconsistent with, the provisions of these agreements; and that the EU has not satisfactorily implemented a recommendation of the WTO DSB. For these reasons, the U.S. Trade Representative has made an affirmative determination of actionability under sections 301(a), and 304(a)(1)(A) of the Trade Act.

C. Determination of Action

Upon making an affirmative determination that U.S. rights under a trade agreement are being denied, or that an act, policy, or practice of a foreign country violates, or is inconsistent with, the provisions of, a trade agreement, section 301(a) of the Trade Act provides that the U.S. Trade Representative shall take all appropriate and feasible action authorized under section 301(c), subject to the specific direction, if any, of the President regarding such action, and all other appropriate and feasible action within the power of the President that the President may direct the U.S. Trade Representative to take under section 301(a), to enforce such rights or to obtain the elimination of such act, policy, or practice.

Pursuant to sections 301(a), 301(c), 304(a)(1)(B), and 306(b) of the Trade Act (19 U.S.C. 2411(a), 2411(c), 2414(a)(1)(B), and 2416(b)), the U.S. Trade Representative has determined to impose additional duties on products of certain EU member States, as specified in Annex A to this notice. The annual trade value of the list of tariff subheadings subject to additional duties is approximately $7.5 billion, which is consistent with the WTO Arbitrator's finding on the appropriate level of countermeasures. Annex A identifies the products covered by the action, the rate of duty to be assessed, and the EU member States affected. The final list of products and rates of additional duty take into account the public comments and the testimony from the public hearings, the advice of advisory committees, and the advice of the Section 301 Committee. In accordance with section 306(b)(2)(F) of the Trade Act (19 U.S.C. 2416(b)(2)(F)), Annex A includes reciprocal goods of the affected industry. Annex B contains the same list of tariff subheadings, with unofficial descriptions of the types of products covered in each subheading.

In order to implement this determination, effective October 18, 2019, subchapter III of chapter 99 of the HTSUS is modified by Annex A of this notice. Products provided for in new HTSUS subheading 9903.89.05 will be subject to an additional ad valorem duty of 10 percent. Products provided for in new HTSUS subheadings 9903.89.10, 9903.89.13, 9903.89.16, 9903.89.19, 9903.89.22, 9903.89.25, 9903.89.28, 9903.89.31, 9903.89.34, 9903.89.37, 9903.89.40, 9903.89.43, 9903.89.46, and 9903.89.49, will be subject to an additional ad valorem duty of 25 percent.

The additional duties provided for in the new HTSUS subheadings established by Annex A apply in addition to all other applicable duties, fees, exactions, and charges.

Any product listed in Annex A, except any product that is eligible for admission under 'domestic status' as defined in 19 CFR 146.43, which is subject to the additional duty imposed by this determination, and is admitted into a U.S. foreign trade zone on or after 12:01 a.m. eastern daylight time on October 18, 2019, only may be admitted as 'privileged foreign status' as defined in 19 CFR 146.41. Such products will be subject upon entry for consumption to any ad valorem rates of duty or quantitative limitations related to the classification under the applicable HTSUS subheading.

The U.S. Trade Representative will continue to consider the action taken in this investigation. In determining whether future modifications may be appropriate, the U.S. Trade Representative will take into account the public comments and testimony previously provided in response to the April 12 and July 5 notices. USTR remains open to discussing matters related to this investigation with the EU and EU member States.

Joseph Barloon,
General Counsel, Office of the U.S. Trade Representative.
