

Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. 5121 et seq. (the “Stafford Act”), as follows:

I have determined that the damage in certain areas of the State of Tennessee resulting from a severe storm and straight-line winds on October 26, 2019, is of sufficient severity and magnitude to warrant a major disaster declaration under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. 5121 et seq. (the “Stafford Act”). Therefore, I declare that such a major disaster exists in the State of Tennessee.

In order to provide Federal assistance, you are hereby authorized to allocate from funds available for these purposes such amounts as you find necessary for Federal disaster assistance and administrative expenses.

You are authorized to provide Public Assistance in the designated areas and Hazard Mitigation throughout the State. Consistent with the requirement that Federal assistance be supplemental, any Federal funds provided under the Stafford Act for Public Assistance and Hazard Mitigation will be limited to 75 percent of the total eligible costs.

Further, you are authorized to make changes to this declaration for the approved assistance to the extent allowable under the Stafford Act.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) hereby gives notice that pursuant to the authority vested in the Administrator, under Executive Order 12148, as amended, Manny J. Toro, of FEMA is appointed to act as the Federal Coordinating Officer for this major disaster.

The following areas of the State of Tennessee have been designated as adversely affected by this major disaster:

Benton, Decatur, Hardin, Henderson, Houston, Humphreys, McNairy, Montgomery, Perry, and Wayne Counties for Public Assistance.

All areas within the State of Tennessee are eligible for assistance under the Hazard Mitigation Grant Program.

The following Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance Numbers (CFDA) are to be used for reporting and drawing funds: 97.030, Community Disaster Loans; 97.031, Cora Brown Fund; 97.032, Crisis Counseling; 97.033, Disaster Legal Services; 97.034, Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA); 97.046, Fire Management Assistance Grant; 97.048, Disaster Housing Assistance to Individuals and Households In Presidentially Declared Disaster Areas; 97.049, Presidentially Declared Disaster Assistance—Disaster Housing Operations for Individuals and Households; 97.050, Presidentially Declared Disaster Assistance to Individuals and Households—Other Needs; 97.036, Disaster Grants—Public Assistance (Presidentially Declared Disasters); 97.039, Hazard Mitigation Grant.

Pete Gaynor,

Acting Administrator, Federal Emergency Management Agency.

Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency; Availability of Draft Binding Operational Directive 20–01

AGENCY: Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency, DHS.

ACTION: Notice of availability; request for comments.

SUMMARY: Through this notice, CISA is making available a draft binding operational directive that will apply to all Federal, executive branch departments and agencies relating to vulnerability disclosure policies. The draft binding operational directive proposes requiring agencies to develop and publish a vulnerability disclosure policy (VDP) and maintain supporting handling procedures. This notice also requests comment on the draft binding operational directive.

DATES: Comments are due by December 27, 2019.

ADDRESSES: You may send comments by any of the following methods:

- Agency Website: For instructions on how to provide comments, please follow the instructions provided at <https://cyber.dhs.gov/bod/20-01/>.
- Email: BOD.Feedback@cisa.dhs.gov. Include “Draft Binding Operational Directive 20–01” in the subject line of the email.

Instructions: The full text of the draft Binding Operational Directive 20–01 is available at <https://cyber.dhs.gov/bod/20-01/>. Do not submit comments that include trade secrets, confidential commercial or financial information, Chemical-terrorism Vulnerability Information (CVI), Protected Critical Infrastructure Information (PCII), or Sensitive Security Information (SSI). All written comments received will be posted without alteration at <https://github.com/>, including any personal information. Contact information submitted through email will not be posted to <https://github.com/>, except for any name and affiliation included in the comment.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of Homeland Security (“DHS” or “the Department”) has the statutory responsibility, in consultation with the Office of Management and Budget, to administer the implementation of agency information security policies and practices for information systems, which includes assisting agencies and providing certain government-wide protections. 44 U.S.C. 3553(b). As part of that responsibility, the Department is authorized to “develop[] and oversee[] the implementation of binding operational directives to agencies to implement the policies, principles, standards, and guidance developed by the Director [of the Office of Management and Budget] and [certain] requirements of [the Federal Information Security Modernization Act of 2014.]” 44 U.S.C. 3553(b)(2). A binding operational directive (“BOD”) is “a compulsory direction to an agency that (A) is for purposes of safeguarding Federal information and information systems from a known or reasonably suspected information security threat, vulnerability, or risk; and (B) [is] in accordance with policies, principles, standards, and guidelines issued by the Director[.]” 44 U.S.C. 3552(b)(1). Agencies are required to comply with these directives. 44 U.S.C. 3554(a)(1)(B)(ii).

Overview of Draft BOD 20–01

On November 27, 2019, CISA posted draft directive 20–01, titled “Develop and Publish a Vulnerability Disclosure Policy,” for public feedback at <https://cyber.dhs.gov/bod/20-01/>. This directive requires each agency to develop and publish a vulnerability disclosure policy (VDP), enable receipt of unsolicited vulnerability reports, maintain supporting handling procedures for any vulnerability reports received, and report certain metrics to CISA. DHS is publishing this notice of availability to provide awareness of the draft binding operational directive being available now for review and comment.

Dated: December 13, 2019.

U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement

Revision of a Currently Approved Collection: Immigration Bond; Correction

AGENCY: U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, DHS.

ACTION: Notice; correction.

SUMMARY: On August 27, 2019 ICE published in the Federal Register requests for comments on the revision of the currently approved I–352 Immigration Bond collection. An information field did not display correctly on the published version of the revised draft bond form.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For specific question related to collection activities, please contact: Justin Gellert, 202–732–5462, justin.c.gellert@ice.dhs.gov, Enforcement and Removal Operations, Bond Management Unit, ICE.

The revised bond form that was published by ICE inadvertently hid the information line for the “name and address of the person who executed a written instrument with the surety company requesting it to post bond,” also known as the indemnitor. This information about the indemnitor is requested on the current approved version of the bond form, and the information line will be included in the final version of the revised form.

Dated: December 16, 2019.

Scott Elmore,

ICE PRA Clearance Officer.
